Villians

By RICK MATSUMOTO

A few years back, you football [fan]s will recall that, Louisiana [Sta]te University was crowned the [top] college football team in the [Un]ited States due mainly to the [eff]orts of a tough defensive [squ]ad which coach Paul Dietzel [ca]lled his "Chinese Bandits".

Whittier College in California [ma]y not get to the Rose Bowl [so]me New Years Day but it does [boa]st a top-notch small college [ele]ven. Poet coach John Godfrey [gi]ves a lot of the credit to a [gr]oup of gridders he fondly re[fer]s to as his "Japanese Bandits."

None of LSU's "Chinese Ban[dit]s" were of Oriental ances[tr]y, but Whittier has the real [th]ing in four Japanese American [bo]ys.

It is unusual to find the name [of] even one Japanese on an Ame[ri]can college football roster. A [lot] of these boys play high school [ba]ll, but when it comes to play[in]g on a college varsity, they are [of]ten hampered by their stature. [H]owever Whittier college seems [to] have a knack of attracting [la]rge Nisei footballers. Ted Uye[no], who graduated from Whittier [la]st spring, after earning three [va]rsity letters was one of the [bi]ggest and best Nisei gridders [of] all time. He stood 6 ft. 2 in. [an]d carried 205 pounds of muscle [wh]ich he utilized to full capacity [on] the gridiron.

All of the "bandits" are top[fl]ight players. Sei Miyano is the [st]arting quarterback for the [W]hittier team. In the latest Na[tio]nal Ass'n of Intercollegiate [A]thletics statistics released he [w]as rated as the number one [sm]all college passer in the United [St]ates.

The other three members of [th]is group, Dave Okura a guard [an]d halfs, Rick Kunishima and [F]red Koga all had very impres[si]ve high school grid records.

Cach Godfrey is proud of his [J]apanese footballers. "What they [la]ck in size," he says, "they make [u]p for in hustle, speed, ability [an]d intelligent thinking."

Every Thursday night for the [pa]st few months a Japanese [ge]ntleman ambles up the ramp, [th]rough the ropes and into the [r]ing at Maple Leaf Gardens [c]arrying a small box under his [bu]rly arms. His name: Tero Sa[ku]ro. Profession: professional [w]restler. The box contains his [c]eremonial treasures which con[si]st of a statue of Buddha and a [f]ew handfuls of salt.

Each week he steps into his [c]orner and to the jeers and cat[c]alls of the patrons he goes into a ceremony of bowing to Buddha, [an]d tossing a pinch of salt on [ea]ch side of the ring. The rest he [d]eposits in his corner. The rea[so]n: he uses this salt to subdue [h]is opponents by tossing a hand[fu]l into their eyes. Just in case [th]e anti-Sakuro fans, of which [th]ere are many, happen to brush [a]way his weapon from his corner [h]e carries a sack inside his trunks [w]hich contains a reserve hand[fu]l. On the pretext that he is [h]urt he crouches in the corner [of] the ring and digs into this [s]upply. When his unwary op[po]nent comes to finish him off [an]d claim victory he quickly [da]shes the salt into their vision[ar]y organs. While the blinded [w]restler is staggering around he [ap]plies a few judo chops to the [th]roat, throws him down and ap[pl]ies the claw-hold to the mid[se]ction, to claim victory.

In the three of four months in [w]hich he has wrestled at the [G]ardens he has yet to lose.

The 240 pounder with the con[st]ant smile calls himself the [illegible] wrestler in Japan, [th]ough personally I don't think [he]'s even been to Japan. Like [th]e infamous counterparts The [Gre]at Togo and [illegible] [h]e probably holds a [illegible] [illegible] from some American [illegible]

SUPPORT UNITED APPEAL

TORONTO.—MISS UNITED APPEAL: United Appeal Chairman for 1961, G. Allan Burton, is seen with the newly elected Miss United Appeal, Diane Stapley, a 16-year-old student of St. Joseph's College. Diane, who was chosen from about 100 candidates, will attend United Appeal Meetings and gatherings to help promote this year's campaign to raise $10,225,000 for 85 agencies of the United Appeal for Metropolitan Toronto.

New Ambassador Arrives

Leaves Tokyo. . .

TOKYO. — Newly appointed Japanese Ambassador, Mr. Nobuhiko Ushida, who arrived in Ottawa earlier this week with his wife and eleven-year-old daughter, was interviewed by NC Tokyo correspondent, K. Tsyuki before his excellency left Tokyo.

Mr. Ushiba will make necessary arrangements for his post in Ottawa before flying back to Tokyo to welcome Prime Minister and Mrs. Diefenbaker. He will return to Ottawa at the first of next month to resume his new duties.

Although the new ambassador has never been appointed to an office in Canada before, he has visited this country on numerous occasions as a representative of Japan. He visited Ottawa previously with then Prime Minister Kishi.

Mr. Ushida was asked about the future of the Canada-Japan trade and economic picture by Tsyuki. To this he replied, "Since the war, the friendly relationships between Canada and Japan have increased at tremendously rpid rate. Due to economic as well as geographic position the two countries have become really neighbourly. Moreover, both Canada and Japan are partners in the free world society." Mr. Ushida added that during his tenure as ambassador in Canada he would like to make brighter the already bright future of the two countries.

• • •

Stops In Vancouver. . .

VANCOUVER.—Mr. Ushiba, director of the economic affairs bureau of the Tokyo Foreign Office for the past four years, said his government is interested in expanding its investment in B.C. mining and would also like to compete in construction and the supply of heavy equipment.

"But the present trade imbalance between Canada and Japan is causing us deep concern and we will not be able to invest more until we are able to export more," he said.

Mr. Ushiba said Japan is content to restrict itself to the traditional markets in Canada but must boost sales to continue heavy buying here.

He said a big part of his new job at Ottawa would be to increase Japanese exports to Canada.

Arrives In Ottawa. . .

OTTAWA.—Upon his arrival in the Capital, Ambassador Nobuhiko told newsmen that the silence was deadly in the Tokyo-to-Vancouver jetliner Tuesday.

Ushida sat first class aboard the Canadian Pacific Airlines plane. Most of a 13-man Red Chinese trade delegation to Canada sat in the tourist class.

"I knew they were there but I ignored them," Ambassador Ushiba told newsmen in Vancouver. "We do not like their politics. They are not friendly to us."

Alberta Girl First In Chemistry Exams

MAGRATH, Alta.—Miss Tomeko Nakagawa, co-valedictorian at the 1960-61 graduation exercises, received special recognition at a recent assembly of the Magrath High School Student body.

Miss Nakagawa, daughter of Mrs. Shiga Nakagawa of Welling, made the highest mark in the Province of Alberta in Chemistry 30, with 100 per cent in departmental examinations for 1961. She received three awards; The Hetelmen's Association scholarship; The Alberta Professional Engineers Award and the Canadian Sugar Factories District Award.

Special speaker at the assembly Mr. W. L. Foss presented a specially engraved slide rule to Miss Nakagawa on behalf of the Alberta Professional Engineers.

Nisei To Head Hydro Project

RAYMOND, Alta.—A native son of Raymond, Susumu S. Karaki, who is doing research work in the field of hydraulic engineering at Colorado State University, has been named engineer in charge of a $100,000 contract in helping to develop a multi-million dollar water resources project in Asia for the West Pakistan Water and Power Development Authority.

This organization is in charge of the Indus River Basin Settlement Plan, a $280 million program designed to divide tributary waters of the Indus between India and Pakistan under terms of a treaty signed recently by the two countries.

The part of the contract Mr. Karaki will work on calls for a study of the problems dealing with sediment deposits in link canals on the Indus. The Colorado State University scientists are working on a model of the Trimmu-Sidhnai Canal design, a sediment-exclusion device which will best control the sediment built up and allow proper water flow.

The Trimmu-Sidhnai link, 44 feet long, 240 feet wide with a capacity of 11,000 cubic feet a second, connects the Chenab and Ravi Rivers. The study of the group of scientists is based on a novel idea of sediment exclusion, one which utilizes the natural concentration of sediment along the inside of the channel bend and draws off the excess.

Mr. Karaki is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Tomi Karaki of 2609 E. 6 Ave. Vancouver 12, B.C., retired farmers of Raymond. He received his early education in Raymond and district, starting on a one room school house south of town. When the school was closed he attended Raymond school from which he graduated, going on to the State College at Logan, Utah from which he was granted his Bachelor of Science degree in 1952.

Following his graduation he was given a fellowship at Colorado from which he received his masters degree. He was associated with the St. Lawrence Seaway project for a year's time before returning to the United States. Mr. Karaki is married and the father of three children.

NJCCA Sends Letter, . . .

Bon Voyage to P.M.

TORONTO.—At the last executive's meeting of the National JCCA, the members decided to send a letter to the Right Hon. John Diefenbaker P.C. in accordance with the Prime Minister's forthcoming visit to Japan. The Prime Minister and Mrs. Diefenbaker are scheduled to arrive in Tokyo on Oct. 26 and stay in Japan until the end of the month, during which time Mr. Diefenbaker will confer with Japanese officials and also have an audience with Emperor Hirohito.

The following is a reprint of the letter sent to Ottawa earlier this week, by National JCCA president, Mr. Edward Ide.

Right Hon John Diefenbaker, P.C.
Parliament Buildings, Ottawa.

Dear Mr. Diefenbaker:

For some time we have heard that you, sir, will be making a goodwill trip to Japan.

It is very gratifying to know that you, sir, have decided to make this visit to Japan, particularly when today, international problems keep increasing among the nations of the world.

As Canadian citizens, we of the National Japanese Canadian Association wish to offer our services at any time, that you, sir, may feel we may be of any assistance, small or large.

May I take this opportunity, on behalf of our Association in extending to you, sir, and your wife, a most pleasant and safe journey.

Your most obedient servant,
Edward Ide,
President, NJCCA.

Wakabayashi Stars On Gridiron

"JUST PLAYING FOR FUN"...

CHATHAM, Ont. — Playing football for the first time, wearing a bandage about his left hand and weighing about 25 pounds less than the average player, Mel Wakabayashi, who led CCI Cougars to victory, said he was playing "just for fun."

The 18-year-old gridiron's debut produced two touchdowns to spark Gene Dziadura's Cougars to their first Red Feath er crown with a 24-0 win over Wallaceburg Red Devils at Kiwanis Stadium.

Mel dislocated his thumb in his first practice session, but was back at his left half back position when Cougars warmed up Wednesday.

The Canadian-born Japanese star before game time became known as Dziadura's "ace in the hole, but none of the 4,500 spectators expected such a startling showing.

He scooted 35 yards on an end run four minutes after the game opened and romped 44 yards on an identical play seven minutes later.

The play, a direct pitch out, was especially designed for speedy half backs.

When asked if he had any serious plans along the football lines, Mel said, "No, I'm playing just for fun."

OTHER SPORTS

Other "just for fun" sports he has excelled in are softball, baseball, hockey and track. He rose early this morning to head for Kitchener where the Chatham Knights of Columbus Juniors are competing in the deciding game of their best-of-three OBA Major "A" semi-final. And if he could be back in time, Mel would probably be joining his Branch 28 Legion teammates in their Chatham and District softball finals at Tecumseh Park.

As though two teams were not enough, he played with Chatham Merlin Merchants in the Blue Water softball grouping and Chatham Juniors in the Huron and Erie softball loop.

TWELVE YEARS IN CITY

Mel came up through the Chatham minor hockey and minor baseball ranks from the time the 10-member Wakabayashi family moved to Chatham from Slocan City, British Columbia 12 years ago.

He was born the son of Mr. and Mrs. Tozazo Wakabayashi April 23, 1943.

Weighing 137 pounds and only standing five foot four inches, the young athlete is not sure how many trophies he has accumulated throughout his sports career, but estimates the number at around 25.

The front room wall of the Wakabayashi home on Degge St. is covered with awards the clan has garnered in the Maple City.

ALL ATHLETES

Older brother Don, 22, is a fellow member of the Legion softball squad and fielder for Pet Callinghan's Chatham senior baseball club.

Younger brother Herb, 16, a fellow member of the Chatham Juniors softball club, is in Kingston today pitching for Joe Zimmer's Moose Midgets in their OBA final series.

Mel's sisters Shirley 21, and Keiko, 14, have also collected their fair share of trophies, Shirley starred in basketball and volley ball while Keiko holds her own on the softball diamond.

Mel is recognized equally well in ball uniforms, track shorts ... and now football gear.

Dziadura's "surprise" last night will not be forgotten this season; Dziadura said before the game that if only one man was covering Mel ... he would be away. This lesson was learned by Bob Blake's Glass Town charges.

So far, no sport has quenched Mel's thirst for good sportsmanship. He is expected to be a shot-in-the-arm to Dziadura's improved senior club ... as he has been with every sports squad he has played on.

Another Baseball Rhubarb In Japan

TOKYO. — An angry spectator leaped into the diamond and struck the chief umpire during an hour long rhubarb at Komazawa stadium before the Toei Flyers edged the Nishitetsu Lions, 3 — 2, recently.

The rhubarb started in the fifth inning with the Lions leading 2 — 0 behind the airtight pitching of righthander Tadao Wako.

Flyers first baseman Hachiro Yamamoto singled after one out and advanced to third on second baseman Jack Ladra's single to right field. Ladra stole second with pinch hitter Kanemoto Miyahara at bat.

Miyahara grounded to pitcher Wako. Wako caught Yamamoto off the bag but Yamamoto returned safely to third when third baseman Norifumi Kido dropped the ball. Ladra, however, was caught between third and second. Lion's second baseman Akira Ogi made a gesture that he had touched Ladra but base umpire Shichiro Yokozawa refused to call it.

Ladra ran back to second but this time Miyahara was caught between second and first and was tagged out. Yamamoto crossed the plate on the play.

Lion's manager Tokuji Kawasaki protested that second baseman Ogi had touched Ladra. Ogi himself had rushed up to umpire Yokozawa and pushed him. Ogi was ejected from the game.

An angry Lion fan leaped into the field and struck chief umpire Satoshi Dobutsu. All six umpires then disappeared from the field. The spectators began screaming for resumption of play. Police were summoned less the crowd get out of control.

The rhubarb continued for an hour and three minutes before play was finally resumed.

The hour long suspension did not help Wako. He walked catcher Junzo Ando. Kazuhisa Inao, Lion' ace righthander who Sunday night went the distance and won his 36th game, relieved Wako and retired the side.

The Flyers however, got a single, a triple and another triple off Inao in the sixth inning to score two runs and win the game 3 — 2.

The Flyers thereby moved up to within one game of the running Nankai Hawks in the Pacific League.

寒い朝

石坂洋次郎　45

明日から學校に出るという日、きみ子は祖母の久がすりの銘仙の對を着て、ドンごい兵児帯をしめ、袷い衿壁に、欠席中の教科書を調べたりしていた。久さは細かいカスリ、袷に、錦紗地の羽織を重ねたおばあさんが新聞の演芸廣告をのぞいて市内見物の日程をつくっていた。眼鏡越しに、細かい活字をのぞいているその格好は、能楽堂に出てくる人物のように枯淡な趣きがあった。

ときみ子は、いささか呆れたようにしばらくおばあさんの方を見ていたが、ふと呼びかけた。

『おばあさん』

『なんですかね』

『おばあさんは幾つになれたの――？』

『六十八ですよ。……生きすぎましたかね』

と、おばあさんは、眼鏡を外して、きみ子の方に向き直った。

『そんなこと云ってやしないわ。百までも生きてよ……でもね、おばあさん、六十八と云えば、だいたい人間の一生だと考えていいわね。あと生きる分はお釣りみたいなもんでしょう……』

『お釣りですいませんね』

『それでさあ、おばあさん。……ると、人生って、こうだった――という結論が出せるでしょう？』

『難かしいことだが、見切時ぐらいの結論なら出せるかも知れないね。何がききたいんですね、お嬢さんは……』

『――女に生れてよかったかどうかっていうこと！』

『ふーむ。……お前はなにかパッとした返事を期待してるのかも知れないが、そういうわけにはいかないようだね。私が、人間一代のお役目を果して感じるところでは、男であることも女であることも、たいしたちがいはなさそうだということですよ……』

と、きみ子はませた口調でつぶやいてから、

『こないだね、パリサン・セッリーが出る、お熱いのがお好き』という映画を見たの。男が女に化けてドタバタするお話なんだけど、その中に出るジャズ・バンドの女の樂士が、

『男も女も似たようなもんよ。身体だって後向きはそっくり同じだし、前向きがちょっとばかしちがうんだけよ』というの……』

『まンっ！』

と、おばあさんはお国言葉で怒鳴って、テーブルをドンとたたいた。

『文部大臣は何をしているのかね！そんなだらな映画を女學生に見せるっていう法があるもんかね。お前もお前だ。わざわざそんなセリフ覚えて来なくてもいい』

▽いつまで續くのかわからないが、先週末から、ずっと文字通りの「インデアン・サマー」。朝から快晴で八十度前后という暖かさである。二・三の友人と今シーズンでは或は最後になろう、というのでボート釣りにでかけた。

▽十月になってからは、こんなことは物好きのいることなのだが、この日はみんなが半裸のまま湖上で半日をすごした。ちょうど風もなく、湖面はガラス板のようにスムースで、もちろん波一つない。點在する大小の島々に密生した雜木が秋のカラーを出しはじめて眺めはあきない。

▽あたりの靜けさを破るのは、思い出したように走るモーター・ボートの爆音だけで、それもすぐ遠ざかると、釣糸をたれたボート内の人々が小聲で話し合うのがハッキリと傳わってくるほどに空氣はすみ切っていた。寢ころんでみると、空はとても高くひろがっていた。

▽雲一點ない水平線上に落陽が、こんなにも大きいのかなあ、と新らしい驚きに感心するほどの大きさで湖上を眞赤に染めて沈んでいくのを、なんといい夕陽だなあ、と口々に讃美しあった。そのころになると、じんわりと寒さが包み、あわてて上衣をかけ合い、夕闇のおりた湖上を走って歸ったが、愉快というより感謝にみちた半日だった。

南阿代表の演説 國連で懲戒動議
カナダは棄權、六七對一で採決

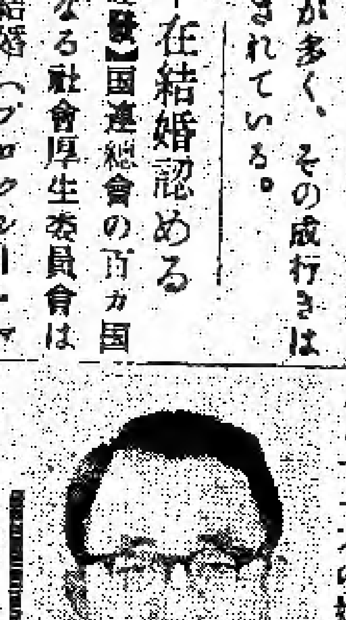
【国連發】今週の国連總會で南阿共和国代表が行なった南阿国の人種隔離政策擁護の演説は不當であり、誤りであり、有色人種を攻撃するものとして、国連はじまって以來、最初の懲戒動議が六七票對一票（南阿）で可決された。人種差別政策を正當といい張るが如き南阿国は国連加盟国たる資格はないと、南アフリカの獨立国代表らはカンカンにフンガイし、このさい南阿代表の演説を懲戒せよと採決を迫ったわけである。これにはカナダ代表は全く關與せず投票に加わらなかったが、その理由は、かかる演説懲戒はその場所を得ていないというもので、もし懲戒に付すのであれば、決議案提出とし、各国にその旨通告すべきが至當であるとの立場をとっている。しかし、カナダ自体としては南阿国の人種政策には絶對贊成できないことを度々明らかにしてきたものである。アフリカの獨立国各代表は南阿を国連から除名すべきだと

大つぴらに意見を述べている者が多く、その成行きは重視されている。

不在結婚認める

【国連發】国連總會の百カ国からなる社會厚生委員會は不在結婚（プロクシー・マリッヂ）と最低結婚年齢をいれる結婚國際法（提案）を承認した。同委員會では結婚最低年齢を十五才にすべきだとする經濟社會委の進言はしりぞけ、各國に順應した最低年齢を設けることになった。

中共通商團と同乘し 牛場大使は沈默守る
『オタワでスキーを楽しもう』



◇牛場駐加大使（五二）は夫人と十一才の娘さんを連れ十一日夕方、トロント空港到着、領事館、日本商社、本紙代表らの出迎えをうけて空港近くのスカイラインホテルで一時間憩い、雑談を交わしたのち、再び空路オタワに向かった。牛場大使は十月二十三日ごろ日本にとび、訪日するカナダ首相夫妻を出迎えるはず。

◇牛場大使はシービーエー機一等座席で太平洋をとんだが、ちょうど中共通商團十三名が同乘していた。大使は彼等の存在を全く無視し、終始沈默を守っていたという。これについて牛場大使は『中共使節團が乘っていること（ツーリスト・クラス）は知っていたが、まったく無視した。我々は彼等の政治を好まないし、彼等は我々に友好的ではない』と晩市空港で記者團に語っている。一方、中共通商團も記者から牛場大使のことを聞かれ『牛場って誰かね』と知らぬ顔だったという。

◇牛場大使は、このごろのインデアン・サマーの暖かさにピッタリ、この暑ではゴルフも出來そうだとハンデー十二の腕をさすっていたが、着任早々の事務多忙と日本へのとび歸りなどでそのタイムはなかろうといっており『まあ、オタワでスキーでも楽しもうかなあ』とスポーツ大使の一面をのぞかしていた。學生時代はボートで鳴らした人である（カットは牛場大使）

＝百年祭の記念計画を援助＝

【オタワ發】カナダ創国百年祭のための費用を、オタワ政府は最低一億弗と見積っており、その額内で一九六七年の国をあげてのお祭りをまかなうつもりだと、ハルサー運輸相は今週發表した。オタワ政府は一億弗のうちから、各地方の慶祝委員會がプランしているもので、永久的記念物となるものに適宜の補助金を出すハラであり、また首都オタワに『カナダ歴史の一マイル通り』を企画しており、これにもかなりの費用をかけるはず。オタワ當局としては百年記念になる建物、パーク、コンサート・ホールおよび歴史著書に補助金を與える方針である。

核實驗は止めぬ
ソ連首相が理由を説明返書

【オタワ發】クルシチョフソ連首相は十二日、ソ連は米国が武装を増強し、戦争氣分をあおっているから、現在の核實驗を継續していくことを書面で明らかにした。この内容の書面は英勞働黨首脳部および日本核實驗反對協議會委員長安井氏宛に送った返事と同じもので、ソ連は戦争を未然に防ぐために強力なる核兵器の實驗を引き續いて北極ケン（圏）内で行っているものであるとし、もしこれを怠れば、西部國群の好戦的な國々が軍事的冒險にのり出すことになるのであるとしている。

シリヤを承認 日本の意向

【東京時事通信發】小坂外相は今週の衆院外務委員會でシリヤ政府承認の意向を明らかにし、次のように述べた。

シリヤから同国承認の要請はきている。これは日本だけでなく各国にきているもので、日本としてはシリアの政治、經濟情勢の安定を考慮に入れて検討しており、大体承認の意向である。

（米国は十月、シリヤ新政権を正式承認した。カナダ政府は閣議で、シリヤ政府に對してなんらの考慮を拂っていないとヂ首相は述べている）

海外の日本語熱高まる
東南アではトップ講座

◇海外の日本語熱がこのところにわかにたかまり、在外大、公使館から外務省に教材や講師を送ってくれとの要望が殺到している。

◇同省で"情勢分析"したところ、まず北歐諸国では各航空會社の北極航路が人氣上々で、日本との交流がぐんとふえたのが原因らしい。三年後の東京オリンピックへのそなえもあるらしく、ポーランドではこのための日本語講習會も準備中とのこと。

◇實利的な必要のある東南アジア各国では、外国語學校で日本語科の受講生數が歐米語をおさえトップに立つやら、一部の教育局で日本語講座を設ける盛況。外務省では、昨年度まで五十四万圓だった外地向け教科書費をささやかながら"倍増"するという。

中共に潜入か
辻政信氏

【東京時事通信】消息不明を傳えられている辻政信參議院議員（無所屬）の消息について小坂外相は次のように衆議院外務委員會で述べた。

◇九月以後の同議員の消息について各種の手段を通じて調査した。先外交筋を通じてシエンクワン駐在のある最高權威筋にも調査を依頼したところ、十月三日の同筋からの連絡によれば、直接會見してはいないが、六月に辻議員はバンビエンにいたとのことである。その後のことはよくわからないが、情報ではシエンクワンからハノイ經由、中共に向かったもようであるとのことである。

ク州で大不足

【モントリオール發】ケベック州三百年來の産業を誇る織物業界は、カナダ人織物専門技師の不足で悲鳴をあげている。なにしろク州織物工業卒業生は昨年でたった十八名、同業界で求めているトップ技術者は今後十年内に三千名というから大不足というわけ。いまのところ多少經驗を持つ移民でやっとアナ埋めをやっているが、これではどうにもならないと州當局に泣きついているという。

TV Upset Teenagers

TOKYO. — Television seems to have completely upset the lives of teen-agers in Japan, according to a survey by that nation's Private School Education Research Institute.

Half a dozen years ago, reading took up a great deal of the teen - agers time in Japan whereas, before World War II, clasical music was the common preference." But recently, when the institute asked youngsters how they spend their spare time, the largest single group replied "watching TV".

The tastes of teen-agers seem to have changed accordingly.

For example, while reading has fallen to fifth place in popularity, jazz (used as a blanket term for everything from Dixieland to Rockabilly), now rates first with 41 percent of the students.

Wild West shows are rated most highly with 25 percent of the teenies, as compared to 4.5 percent only five years ago, and movie tastes have changed similarly.

Baseball, which enjoys the status of a national sport in Japan, now ranks first only as a spectator's game among teenagers and is enjoyed, on this basis, by girls more than boys.

Girls are also the heaviest readers and show a preference for foreign novels while boys prefer Japanese novels.

Movies continue to be the main gathering place of teenagers outside of school, followed by skating rinks. Next most popular pastime is table tennis, in which Japan is strong internationally.

Japanese Movie To Be Filmed In Hawaii

HONOLULU— Members of Japan's Shochiku Studio will arrive in Hawaii late this year to begin shooting a film having as its background the 1920 Sugar strike, a movement in which Japanese workers combined with Filipinos to press for better conditions on Hawaii's plantations.

The cast will include such stars as Hideko Takamine, who scored Venice Film Festival winner, Rickshaw Man; Keiji Sada, outstanding romantic lead and ... actor Tatsuya Nakadai, and Yoshiko Kuga. The projected film has tentatively been entitled "Sanka Ari" (There are Mountains and Rivers).

Japanese studios seem to have become increasingly aware of the dramatic possibilities in Hawaiian themes.

"Hey Pineapple"

Not long ago, Shochiku filmed Bob Hongo's "Hey Pineapple," a story in which the Hawaiian-born author tell of the escapades during the Korean War of an Hawaiian unit. Many of the scenes were shot in Hawaii, including a number at Schofield Barracks. Hongo was given a prominent role in the film and filled it creditably. He stayed in Japan and duplicated his success in other pictures.

Daiei Studio used the lush scenery of Hawaii for "Ryojo," featuring Fujiko Yamamoto as the girl from Japan who arrives in Honolulu and proceeds to break up the engagement of her former lover, Keizo Kawasaki, to Hitomi Nozoe the trusting local Nisei.

It seems however, that "Sanka Ari" may be the most meaningful film about Hawaii yet produced by a Japanese studio. From the pen of scenarist Eijiro Hisaita, with Kompu Kawazoe, Hawaii Times staff writer as technical adviser, the story is scheduled to begin with Keiji Sada and wife, Hideko Takamine, leaving Yokohama about 1917 to teach in Hawaii. Aboard is Yoshiko Kuga, who is emigrating, as did so many Issei women, to become a picture bride.

Plot of "Sanka Ari"

The teacher couple find no opportunity to practice their profession in Hawaii, and they go to a plantation to earn their living by hard labor. Distressed by the harsh conditions they meet, they advocate better treatment.

How the movie proposes to handle the strike situation in which 10,000 men, women and children were evicted from the plantations, many dying in a flu epidemic, is not yet clear. There is much dramatic material here.

It is presumed that Shochiku, in accordance with its high standards, will make adequate use of it.

Japan Wants Islands Returned. . .

Warn Russia About Occupation of Kuriles

TOKYO. — Premier Hayato Ikeda warned last week that Japan will not "tolerate continued Soviet occupation of the Kurile islands."

The warning came in an address by Ikeda to the upper house of the Japan Diet.

Ikeda's warning followed a brusque letter Friday from Soviet Premier Nikita Khrushchev to the Japanene premire which indicated that Japan had forfeited claims to her former northern territories - including the Kurile—by signing the San Fancisco peace treaty.

Ikeda declared the island chain, which stretches into the northern Pacific from Japan's northernmost island of Hokkaido was "inherrent Japanese territory."

He said Japan "could not tolerate (Soviet) violation" of the islands.

Khrushchev's note claimed the territorial dispute was settled by "a series of international agreements in the past" and renewed discussions of the Japanese clains to the islands wuld agravate Soviet-Japanese relations."

The "international agreements" referred to by Khrushchev included the 1951 Japan peace treaty, concluded in San Francisco, which the Soviet Union refused to sign.

Khrushchev has said previously that the islands would never be returned while Japan maintains its security treaty with the United States. But he has never stated with such apparent finality that Japan should forget about recovering her former territory.

The Soviet reply shocked Japanese officials. It was seen by some officials as a move closing the door on any further negotiations for the return of the islands.

The foreign office reacted with usual swiftness in terming the Russian assertions "groundless," "onesided" and designed to cover "Soviet faults."

Japanese officials were particularly surprised at the Soviet use of the 1951 peace treaty to support their claims that the territorial issue already had been settled because they denounced the treaty as illegal many times in the past and has refused to recognize its validity.

Khrushchev coupled his rejection of further negotiations on the territorial issue with a rejection of a Japanese government demand that the Soviet Union cease its testing of nuclear weapons.

He repeated earlier assertions that Japan risks becoming a victim of nuclear attack by permitting American military bases on her territory.

"Can the Soviet Union remain quiet, with its arms folded, while a series of super-moder foreign military installations are being built on Japan's territories, including the Okinawa (Ryukyu) islands, which are apparently directed against the Soviet Union, the People's Republicof (comunist) China and the People's Republic of (North) Korea?" the Soviet premier asked.

It was generally believed that Khrushchev's refusal to return the territories to Japan would hurt the opposition Socialist party here.

The Socialists have been calling for the abrogation of the U.S.-Japan security treaty in order to conclude a peace treaty with the Soviet Union and to get the territories from the Soviets.
